

1. Leer las oraciones e identificar. ¿Voz pasiva; voz activa o imperativas? Especificar.

- a. Hard hats are worn to protect workers from head injuries caused by falling objects.
- b. Technicians work with specialists.
- c. Steel-toed boots provide protection for the feet.
- d. Demonstrate the correct use of safety equipment.
- e. the emphasis is placed on the protective measures.
- f. It is imperative that these protective measures be consistently utilized by construction workers.
- g. A hazard is the potential for harm.
- h. Safety specialists and technicians collect data on and analyze many types of work environments.
- i. A range of protective gear is employed to mitigate potential dangers on construction sites.
- j. Evaluate programs on workplace health and safety.
- k. These programs cover a range of topics.
- l. Educate employers and workers about workplace safety by preparing and providing training programs.
- m. High-visibility vests are worn to enhance visibility.
- n. They include viruses, bacteria, and molds.

2. Interprete las siguientes palabras.

- a. Steel-toed boots
- b. hard hats
- c. safety goggles
- d. Hazard
- e. Danger
- f. Workplace
- g. Illnesses

- h. Harm
- i. Health
- j. Substances
- k. Belts

3. Tipos de palabras. Identificarl las palabras subrayadas. ¿Verbos, sustantivos o adjetivos?

- a. "Occupational health and safety specialists inspect workplaces..."
- b. "Prepare written reports..."
- c. "Demonstrate the correct use of safety equipment."
- d. "Biological hazards."
- e. "Ergonomic hazards."
- f. "An inadequate safety program."
- g. "An individual worker's action"
- h. "Apply administrative controls."
- i. "Resistant lenses."
- j. "If you eliminate the hazard, it will no longer post a danger to your coworkers."
- k. "The procedures are confusing."