- a. There is a hole in the floor. Someone could fall. _____
- b. The floor is wet. Someone might slip. _____
- c. There is a cord across the walkway. Someone could trip. _____
- d. The step is broken. Someone may fall. _____

3. Match the hazards to the correct picture. Then, write the consequences using modal verbs. Sometimes, more than one option is possible. Use the collocation dictionary to use the verbs and nouns correctly and any other dictionary to work with translations. There is an example.

WET FLOOR – HEAVY LIFTING – OVEREXPOSURE TO THE SUN – INCORRECT POSTURE – HOT SURFACE – UNGUARDED MACHINE – EXTREME HEAT	BACKACHE – DEATH – RASH – BURNS – FALLS AND HITS – INJURY – SORE EYES – DIZZINESS – BROKEN BONES
---	---

Heavy lifting: Someone could suffer from backache.
